NOCTON PARISH COUNCIL

SECTION 1 – ANNUAL GOVERNANCE STATEMENT 2021/22

No. 5 – The Parish Council’s Clerk and Responsible Financial Officer was appointed on 1 April 2021 but resigned in November 2021 and left its service on 25 December, 2021. However, for various reasons he did not attend any meetings of the Parish Council after 7 September and undertook only limited work from October onwards. In addition, and for a significant part of the financial year, the Parish Council operated with only three parish councillors (from a total membership of seven) and being unable to appoint a new Parish Clerk lacked the capacity to carry out a more thorough assessment of the risks it faced. It has, however, recently appointed an experienced Parish Clerk and three former councillors have also been re-elected to the Parish Council. An assessment of the risks facing the Council (which has already been raised with the Internal Auditor) will, therefore, be undertaken at the earliest opportunity. The Parish Council has also agreed that the Internal Auditor will carry out a mid-year review to ensure that this, and any other issues which have been highlighted for attention, are being appropriately addressed.

No.7 – As referred to above, the Parish Council lacked the capacity to address all of the issues raised by the Internal Auditor following their audit in May 2021. It is, however, committed to working closely with its new Internal Auditor following receipt of her report and any recommendations for process improvement, etc.
